PAYMENT ADVISORY

December 09, 2016

Dear Esteemed Researchers and Reviewers,

We are really proud of you and thank you for keeping faith with us the past 10 years. We sincerely wish you the best of the Christmas season and a prosperous, and happy New Year ahead. We write to inform you about some salient changes in the activities of your esteemed journals and also to inform those whose abstracts have been accepted for the first quarter of 2017.

1. IAARR JOURNALS

Below is the list of all journals by the above association. Papers are accepted all through the year and you are encouraged to submit your articles to us not only when you need same for promotion. This will make for proper review.

2. International Journal of Arts and Humanities (IJAH)

2. ARTICLE SUBMISSION

First of all, henceforth, all article submissions must be done online. Visit our site www.afrevjo.net to be able to do that. Fill all the fields provided but still have the first page as the title page with your name starting with the surname; department/institution affiliation, e-mail and phone number. Should you have issues doing that, please let us know.

3. IAARR MEMBERSHIP REGISTRATION

Secondary, you can, from January 2017, register as a member of International Association of African Researchers and Reviewers Inc. This also must be done annually online and certificate printed at the beginning of every year. One of the advantages of registering is that you get a 10% reduction of the publication cost for one paper annually, and 10% reduction in conference registration cost any time and any where there is one.

4. JOURNAL REVIEW, PRINTING, PUBLICATION AND POSTAGE COST

In view of the recession and exchange rate, we can no longer sustain the journal at the current cost of publication and postage. We therefore, have made little adjustments in the printing, publication and postage costs of all our journals to meet with the quality you will love. Our standard currently is been affected by cost. Please bear with us.

(a) REVIEW FEE

Henceforth, IAARR charges journal review fee of $20 Dollars or #6,000 for authors in Nigeria. As soon as papers are submitted online, a payment teller or other evidence of payment should be uploaded immediately to our e-mail: mail@afrevjo.net; jafrev@yahoo.com. The paper processing starts as soon as this is done. This should be paid into our ECO BANK account with the following details:

ECOBANK, NIGERIA

Account Name: JOAFRR JOURNAL

Account No: 4662028038

Sort Code: 050021369

Swift Code / BIC Code: ECOCNGLA

NOTE: THIS ACCOUNT IS FOR REVIEW FEES ONLY

(b) PRINTING, PUBLICATION AND POSTAGE COST

You are expected to pay $100 (One hundred United States Dollar) or 95 Euro or 2,500 Ethiopian Birr or 1,500 South African Rand or 500 Ghana Cedi or 10,500 Kenyan Shilling or 45,000 Nigerian Naira. You make your choice of currency but we prefer payment in dollar. Whatever conversion you do must not go below the stated amount and all bank charges must be borne by you.

This payment entitles you to one copy of the journal to be posted to the corresponding author who should be the first author listed on the paper. If however you need extra copies for all the authors, additional $20 (#8,000.00) per copy MUST be paid with the publication cost so that everything must be posted at a time.

Of course, you have the option of not requesting for a hard copy. The journal operates an open access; you can therefore make a download of the paper and make a payment of $80 (Eighty Dollars) only.

For all authors outside Nigeria, the publication cost is still $100 (One hundred United States Dollar). As posting of the journals is costing us a fortune, we can no longer be able to send you a hard copy of the journal but we shall always make available the cover of every edition in case you would want to print and bind. The amount is inclusive the review fee and excluding the hard copy.

You can have the hard copy if you pay a postage cost of $50. All payments must be done in dollars into our domicilliary account

Our Domicilliary Account Details are:

Account Name: Intl Ass of African Researchers and Reviewers
Account No: 3002214161
Bank: United Bank for Africa (UBA)
Sort Code: 033020031
Swift Code: UNAFNGLA164

For those who would wish to do money transfer through the local currency, please use the account below:

FIRST BANK NIG. PLC

Name of account: JOAFRR JOURNAL
Account No: 2018157705
Sort Code: 011023377
Swift Code: FBNINGLA

The teller and all other evidence of payment should be uploaded through E-mail address to the Managing/Communications Editor: jafrev@yahoo.com.

VERY IMPORTANT: While uploading the teller, write again the tile of your work, NAMES OF THE AUTHOR(S) BEGINNING WITH THEIR SURNAMES AND INITIALS, E-MAIL ADDRESSES AND PHONE NUMBER. Only the surname should be written in full, others must be abbreviated. This information is important especially for the posting of the journals. Phone numbers are very necessary for delivery purposes

The publication is delayed when authors do not pay on time.

Your dear Managing/Communication is there to serve you better. Please send text message only to me and I promise to reply within 12 hours of receipt if not immediately.

Nneka Umera-Okeke, Ph.D.
